(Submission Deadline now Sept. 29th)

This year, the 9th Asia Pacific Symposium on Emotions in Worklife is being hosted by UQ Business School, The University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia and sponsored by ANZAM (Australian & New Zealand Academy of Management). The symposium is a day-long, semi-formal meeting of scholars interested in the study of emotions in work settings and will be held on Friday the 28th of November 2014 from 9am to 5pm. The symposium is being held just prior to the Annual ANZAM Conference, which will be held in Sydney on the 3rd to the 5th December, 2014.

The symposium will feature a keynote address by internationally renowned scholar Professor Peter Jordan and will comprise paper presentations and roundtable sessions to discuss poster presentations. The registration fee for attending the symposium is AUD50, which will cover lunch, morning tea and afternoon tea. PhD students will receive complimentary registration. The conference will conclude with an optional dinner, paid for on the day of the event.

Submission Guidelines

Three types of submissions are sought: Oral presentations, poster sessions, and group proposals.

Submissions for the roundtable (Poster) sessions require an abstract of between 200 and 400 words describing your project/paper, as well as the paper title, author(s), affiliations, and contact details. Posters will be discussed briefly in moderated roundtable sessions following poster viewing. In keeping with the roundtable format, we welcome papers describing work in progress or developmental papers. A small number will be selected for oral presentation.

Group proposals are welcome. Examples include an innovative panel, hot topic discussion session, or short symposium. Group proposals should provide a 400 to 800 word outline of the topic including a short description of each member's contribution. The key criterion in evaluating group proposal is that they provide an efficient way to use our limited time in a way that provides the most benefit to participants in advancing their research.

Submit your abstract or proposal as an MS Word file (.doc or .docx), with double-spaced text and 12pt TR font to Ms. Alana Dorris at a.dorris@business.uq.edu.au. The submission deadline has been extended to Monday, 29 September, 2014.

Please also ensure that you insert "APSEW Submission" in the email subject heading.

All accepted abstracts/proposals will be published in the conference proceedings.
