CALL FOR PAPERS

The 6th Asia-Pacific Symposium on Emotions in Worklife is being hosted and sponsored by the School of Management, University of South Australia in Adelaide, Australia. The symposium is a day-long, meeting of scholars interested in the study of emotions in work. The symposium will include a keynote address by Professor Carol T. Kulik, an internationally renowned scholar, and will feature paper presentations as well as roundtable sessions to discuss poster presentations. All accepted abstracts/proposals will be published in the conference proceedings.

Submit abstracts by 18 September 2011

Submission Guidelines

Three types of submissions are sought:

1. Individual oral presentations
 2. Roundtable poster sessions
 3. Group proposals
- Submissions for the individual Oral Presentations/Poster Sessions require an abstract of between 200 and 400 words describing your project/paper, as well as the paper title, author(s), affiliations, and contact details. Posters will be discussed briefly in moderated roundtable sessions following poster viewing. In keeping with the roundtable format, we welcome papers describing work in progress or developmental papers. A small number will be selected for oral presentation.
 - Group proposals are welcome. Examples include an innovative panel, hot topic discussion session, or short symposium. Group proposals should provide a 400 to 800 word outline of the topic including a short description of each member's contribution. The key criterion in evaluating group proposal is that they provide an efficient way to use our limited time in a way that provides the most benefit to participants in advancing their research.
 - Submit your abstract or proposal as an MS Word file (.doc or .docx), with double-spaced text and 12pt Times New Roman font to Dr Sanjeewa Perera and Dr Christina Scott-Young at APSEW6@unisa.edu.au
